MISSION STATEMENT

We pledge to live up by and act on the commitment that birding belongs to everyone. The Paskamansett Bird Club conducts birding walks, field trips and accessible outings, presents programs, and holds monthly meetings about birds and nature, and strives to conserve and preserve birds and their habitats. We welcome all who enjoy and care about birds and the environment regardless of age, race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, beliefs, birding experience, or skill level. We will do all in our power to be inclusive of those with any disabilities, hardships or physical constraints.

CODE OF CONDUCT:

- I will observe all current rules of the Paskamansett Bird Club and the municipality in which an official club event is taking place.
- I will not endanger others with my actions and respect private property.
- I will observe signage and adhere to local norms and rules

RELEASE OF ALL DEMANDS – HOLD HARMLESS

In consideration of my acceptance by Paskamansett Bird Club to participate in club events and field trips, I hereby waive, release, and forever discharge, and agree to indemnify, and hold harmless, Paskamansett Bird Club and its officers, event organizers, walk leaders and agents and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns (the "Released Parties"), from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, or obligations of every kind and description, both in law and in equity, whether or not such claims, demands, liabilities, or obligations are fixed or contingent, disclosed or undisclosed, known or unknown, which I shall or may have against the Released Parties or any one or more of them as a result of my participation.

By submission of your dues and this form, you subscribe to the Code of Conduct and binding disclaimer of liability freely and voluntarily.
